John DiSessa, CEC, AAC – Club President – PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fellow Epicurean Club members,

As summer comes to an end, I trust you all had a good summer with family and friends. At our last meeting at Four's in Boston, we had a great meeting. Around 25 members attended (complying with social distancing protocols, of course). Great food and friends. I honestly believe everyone was ready to get out of the house and socialize.

As fall approaches and the cool weather comes in, the smell of pumpkin spice fills the air. There is nothing like a hot pumpkin spice coffee and a piece of apple or pumpkin pie.

Our next meeting will be held at the Smoke Shop in Cambridge Massachusetts. Please be sure to reserve your tickets early. Tickets are limited to 25 guests so we can comply with social distancing. The smoke Shop menu has a lot of excellent menu option like mac and cheese bites, The smoke Shop BBQ's famous wings, BBQ Ribs and Pork Belly just to mention a few.

Events canceled due to Covid-19

- Ocean Spray Cranberry Bog Tours (we will reschedule for next season)
- Wachusett Mountain BBQ has been cancelled until next year.

Canning 101

"Maybe the pickle spear on the side of your burger plate brought back thoughts of your grandmother's pickled cucumbers. Maybe it was how the breakfast spread at the corner diner tasted a lot like your aunt's homemade version. You want those feelings (and tastes) back. Canning with Ball® jars can help you turn those thoughts into realities." Read article here...
